Design of a Quality Monitoring Information System for the Education Process at the University Level

O. N. Granichin, O. A. Granichina,
St. Petersburg State University,
Herzen Russian State Pedagogical University,
(Oleg_granichin, Olga_granichina)@mail.ru

Key words: quality monitoring, educational process, information system, randomized balanced scorecard method.

The original approach to the designing of the information monitoring system of the university educational process’s quality is described. The randomized balanced scorecard method is used for the convolution of versatile estimates.

Bibliogr.: 9 refs.